

United States Studies Minor-1

United States Studies Minor

Affiliated faculty: Adler, Blake, Clydesdale, Fair, Fisher, Gray, McGreevey, Nicolosi, Ortiz-Vilarelle, Rao

The interdisciplinary minor in United States Studies explores the United States and its place in the world. Without losing sight of the inner workings of American society, the emphasis is on connections among Americans and other peoples.

Requirements

Five course units:

- one recommended: Introduction to US Studies or other prerequisite (see below)
- one required: Core Seminar
- three options

No more than two courses may be from the same discipline and no more than one course from the student's major.

Prerequisite

Normally, a student is admitted to the minor upon recommendation of affiliated faculty after taking either USA101/102 (a recommended course that introduces major themes in American history, culture, and society) or another course taught by affiliated faculty.

1 course unit

Required course

USA301 (Humanities)/302 (Social Sciences) Core Seminar
