Dear Mr. Frias:

Americans are big on rewards these days.

Financial rewards in the stock market...cash rewards on your credit cards...incentive awards at work...luxurious rewards in the travel industry.

The competition is getting pretty fierce.

But a special group of Americans are experiencing one of the greatest reward programs ever...

...because they took the initiative to become a Life Member of the Inner Circle.

Today, Mr. Frias, I would like to offer you an invitation to join this elite group of fellow Inner Circle members, and in so doing, present you with three very special rewards at our Fall Issues Briefing which will take place here in Washington, D.C., on November 4th and 5th.

First, prior to our "Salute to Senate Leadership" reception on Tuesday evening, I would like you to step behind the scenes and share in a personal photo opportunity with the Republican Senate Leadership.

That's right, a singular photo of you standing with some of the most important political leaders in America today. I'm talking about joining me in a photo with Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott, Assistant Majority Leader Don Nickles, President Pro Tempore Strom Thurmond, Policy Chairman Larry Craig, Republican Conference Chairman Connie Mack and Republican Conference Secretary Paul Coverdell.

These are the men who are shaping the Senate agenda -- and America's future. They're among the prime leaders who will guide this country into the 21st Century.

And while you may know them well as an Inner Circle member now, there is no question that Life Membership will bring you closer and closer to them with each subsequent meeting.

Your second Inner Circle Life Membership reward is a complimentary ticket to a spectacular event, "The Third Annual Senate Majority Dinner."

This star-studded, all-American political celebration will bring together some of the
