SEMESTER

SUBJECT: 1ST MEETING!!!

On: September 8, 2008 8:06 AM

Hello Everyone!

Just a friendly reminder that the first SETA meeting will be held tomorrow night (9/9) at 7pm in the Social Sciences Building room 321.

As it is a new year we have lots of new things to talk about and would love to hear what you want SETA to do for YOU!

Hope to see everyone there!

Cheers,
Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

SUBJECT:SETA REMINDER

On:September 22, 2008 8:25 AM
Hello again everyone!

Just a reminder here that SETA will be having a general body meeting tomorrow (9/23) at 7pm in SSB #321.

We will be having a guest speaker, Ellen Davila, from Ewing High School in to talk about the Homework Help Center and a great volunteering opportunity and resume builder for anyone interested.

Hope to see you all there!

Cheers,
Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

SUBJECT:UNWANTED SETA EMAILS

On:September 22, 2008 8:28 AM

To anyone who has requested removal from the SETA mailing list but is still receiving email, it is recommended that you mark emails from this address as spam or junk mail for the time being as we are having technical troubles removing names from the account's mailing list.

Thank you for your cooperation and patience.

SUBJECT: SETA MEETING

On: October 27, 2008 11:54 AM

Hey everyone,

Just a reminder that we're back on schedule and we have a general body meeting tomorrow night at 7 PM in the Social Sciences Building Room 321.

We have lots to discuss such as on and off campus volunteer opportunities, a t-shirt design, tutoring in Ewing, a SETA workshop, and more. See you there!

Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

SUBJECT:SETA MEETING!

On:November 10, 2008 3:59 PM

Hello Everyone,

Come on out to the SETA meeting tomorrow (11/11) and help us work on our traveling workshop for high school students.

Don't forget your t-shirt designs!

Cheers,
Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

P.S.

If you are still receiving unwanted SETA emails please send a separate email to seta@tcnj.edu, include your TCNJ email address (lastname#@tcnj.edu) NOT your forwarding address.

SUBJECT:SETA MEETING THIS WEEK

On:November 17, 2008 11:58 AM

Hello Everyone,

Although tomorrow night (11/18) is scheduled for an Executive board meeting, we will be holding an impromptu SETA general body session in the library at 7pm. We will meet in the cafe and then proceed to a group study room to work collaboratively on SETA's workshop presentation for New Egypt High School.

I look forward to seeing you all there and getting your input!

Cheers,
Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

SUBJECT: THANK YOU FROM SETA

On: December 7, 2008 11:25 AM

Hello all,

I would like to extend thanks from myself and the other members of the SETA E-board to all of the members of SETA for coming out to hear our guest lectures and participate in the volunteering opportunities that we offered this semester.

As this the year comes to a close I hope that all of you have had an enjoyable and fruitful term at TCNJ and in your field placements. I hope even more that you will stay involved with SETA's meetings and activities in the coming semester with the notorious leadership & advocacy that you as SETA members are known for.

Good luck to everyone on their finals and have a relaxing Winter Break!

See you all next in the Spring on Tuesdays at 7, Social Sciences Building 321.

Cheers,
Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

SUBJECT: URBAN EDUCATION LECTURE

On: January 26, 2009 4:26 PM

Hello everyone!

I hope that the break treated everyone well and that you are all off to a good start of the Spring semester.

I just received an email from Dr. Meixner in the English Department about a lecture that will be taking place here at TCNJ on 3/18 concerning urban education.

Take a look at the original email below, it sounds like a great opportunity for for all future educators.

Alex Smiga
President of S.E.T.A.

.....
Dear Alex and eboard members,

I just wanted to alert you to the following upcoming Ed. event, just in case any members of SETA would be interested.

Dan Brown (not of the Da Vinci code), author of The Great Expectations School, will be on campus March 18th giving the urban ed. proseminar from 4-6pm. He'll be talking about challenges and recommendations for new teachers in urban schools, and he'll be signing books after the lecture.

He's also agreed to do a book discussion that morning from 10-11:30 with TCNJ education students and alums. The discussion is limited to 30 students and I've posted a sign-up sheet outside my door (202 Bliss Hall) for all students who would like to participate (across disciplines, not just English). First come, first served. All attendees must commit to reading his book. They will be available through the bookstore in early February. Here's some info:

Thanks so much.

SPRING SEMESTER

SUBJECT:FIRST MEETING OF SEMESTER TONIGHT AT 7PM!- NOMINATIONS FOR TREASURER!

February 17, 2009 1:43 PM

Hey everyone,

Tonight will be the first meeting of the semester for the Secondary Education Teachers Association at 7pm in Social Sciences Building 321. All secondary education students are encouraged to come out and join SETA. It is not a big commitment since there is only one brief meeting every two weeks. Being a member of SETA is a great way to stay informed about education issues here at TCNJ and beyond as well as clearing up any questions you have about courses/professors to take. Since secondary education students don't have their own education advisers, sometimes the best advice can come from talking to fellow students. We will also be taking nominations for Treasurer at this meeting, so it is a great opportunity for a leadership position. Hope to see you all at the meeting tonight!

SUBJECT: EDUCATION FORUM TOMORROW NIGHT!

On: April 19, 2009 1:53 PM

Future Teachers,

Tomorrow night is our one and only event of the semester so please do your best to come out and bring your friends! The information is below.

Best,

Justin Freedman

President, SETA

Education Forum: The Disparities Between High and Low Poverty Schools in New Jersey

April 20th

6:30PM

Library Auditorium

This forum will feature a presentation by former National Distinguished Principal of the Year Larry Fieber. Mr. Fieber was principal of Parkway Elementary School in Ewing when he was recognized and has since become Urban Recruitment Coordinator here at TCNJ. His presentation will focus on the disparities in the quality of education and achievement in New Jersey's public schools. Specifically, Mr. Fieber will compare the achievement gap between the school districts of Moorestown and Camden. A question and answer session will follow the presentation.

SUBJECT:GREAT NIGHT.....MEETING AND T-SHIRTS TOMORROW

On:April 21, 2009 1:19 AM

Future Teachers,

First of all I would like to thank all who came out to the education forum last night. None of the forums that have occurred this semester have been attended by more than 30 students, however we had nearly 80 students come out tonight! Congratulations to everyone who helped publicize and came out to the event. You all made SETA's event a very successful one.

As mentioned before, tonight's meeting is our final meeting of the semester. The meeting will be at 7pm in SSB 325. ALSO, I received an email informing me that our t-shirts were delivered and should be in the mail room tomorrow. So make sure you come to the meeting to pick up your t-shirt! If you still want a t-shirt and did not order one, I bought a few extra so you can feel free to buy one at the meeting - they are $10. See everyone tonight!

Best,

Justin Freedman
